FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BREDESEN SENDS SCTP STATE CHAMPIONS OFF TO CONQUOR THE NATION

NASHVILLE, Tenn. –

The Scholastic Clay Target Program's State Champions had a chance to meet with Governor Bredesen yesterday at the State Capitol. Each first place team within their experience level attended the meeting. This was an opportunity for the Governor to wish the teams well before they leave this weekend to represent the great state of Tennessee in the Grand-American National SCTP Championships in Vandallia, Ohio August 9, 2005.

Mrs. Jeanette Rudy, (member of the TWRA Wildlife Commission) was also on hand to wish the kids good luck in their quest to become National Champions.

Teams from top to bottom are the teams of Morristown Top guns, Cumberland County Jets, Caba Farms Smokin' Guns, Henry County Straight Boys, and the rookie team Big Springs Big Shots. Also in the photo are the SCTP State Directors Alan and Betty Loveless.
